SHELTON STATE ESPORTS COMPETE IN 2025 NJCAA TOURNAMENT

February 26, 2025 – The Shelton State Community College Esports team is looking forward to its sixth year of competition. This season, Shelton is boasting over thirty players who will compete in nine game titles and counting. SSCC is a National Junior College Athletic Association Esports (NJCAA) member and will compete in their tournaments in addition to freelance tournaments for titles our members are interested in. Team captains for the fall will be Sean Sanford, Emily West, Noah Yarbrough, Alex Platonov, Hayden Norstrom, and Kyle Gillison.

The NJCAA tournament is organized into three tiers of competition. The competition began February 24 with our teams competing in 9 regular season game titles in tier three: CoD: Warzone, Counter-Strike 2, Marvel Rivals, Rocket League, Smash Ultimate, Street Fighter, Team Fight Tactics, Tekken, and Valorant. Additional tournaments on the docket include iRacing, CoD: Mobile, and Clash Royale.

Shelton State Intramurals are stronger than ever. Intramurals will be open to all Shelton State students, faculty, staff, and parents. For more information, contact Kgroce@sheltonstate.edu.
